

2019 Education Summit

WHO:

60 low-income, first-generation rising college freshmen from all over the U.S.

WHAT:

Five day retreat designed to help the students make a successful transition into and through college. All participants will also receive a four-year scholarship. Click here to view a video from last year's Summit.

WHERE:

Loyola Marymount University (Los Angeles), June 23 – June 28

WHY:

Many underserved students are faced with education gaps and obstacles that can be a barrier to their college success. The UP Through Education Summit empowers students to take control of their own success by instilling self-confidence and giving them the tools to successfully transition to and through college.
